

GENERAL PLAN UPDATE PHASE 2

ABOUT

The City kicked off Phase 2 of its General Plan Update (GPU) in late 2023 after a successful initial phase of community engagement and the creation of a visioning framework. The second phase will focus on updating the City's long-term planning for land use, circulation, and economic development.

PUBLIC MEETINGS

Add your voice by attending upcoming public meetings with the General Plan Advisory Committee (GPAC) on the future of Dana Point. The City has scheduled five GPAC meetings in 2024 to provide a public forum for constructive dialogue. All meetings start at 6:00 PM at the Dana Point Community Center.

#1 | JAN 23

- Kick off Phase 2 and identify potential areas of change

#2 | FEB 27

- Consider existing conditions and guidelines for areas of change

#3 | MAR 26

- Evaluate costs and trade offs of potential changes

#4 | JUN 25

- Discuss draft land use and mobility plans, goals, and strategies

#5 | AUG 27

- Review final draft plans, goals, policies, strategies, and actions

OPPORTUNITY AREAS FOR CONSIDERATION

At its first meeting, the GPAC confirmed five areas that merit further consideration as potential sites for new land use and development options.

An interactive story map of these sites, including aerials, site details, and street view imagery, can be accessed at: www.plandanapoint.com/documents
